

Appleton East Youth Basketball Association (AEYBA)

In keeping with the AEYBA mission statement which states:

The Appleton East Youth Basketball Association (AEYBA) has been designed to provide opportunities, training, recreation and education for young student athletes to develop and enhance their overall skills while competing in a highly competitive environment. The AEYBA is a non-profit, volunteer organization dedicated to youth basketball.

We would like your help. Feedback from players and parents is very important as we build this organization. Please take a couple of minutes to complete this form so that we may make positive improvements to our program.

The program was well organized.
My player enjoyed the AEYBA season.
The coaches did a good job meeting the guidelines for my player's grade level with regards to playing time, practices, development & other expectations. (Based on guidelines on the AEYBA website: www.aeyba.com)
I feel the environment was a positive one for my player's development & for parent interaction with the coach.
There was a good team environment in games & practices.
My player was given opportunities to be successful in games and practices.
My child's team played in enough tournaments.
Fundamentals were stressed enough during practices.
The cost of the program is reasonable.

What did your child enjoy the most about this program?

Please continue with the questions on the next page

Is your child planning on returning next season? Why or Why not?

In what areas are we doing well as an organization?

What areas would you like to see improvement in?

Do you have any other ideas or comments for this program?

Thank you for taking the time to provide us with your feedback and comments. We are committed to working with parents and players to make this a positive, learning opportunity!
